

TRI-WEEKLY KENTUCKY YEOMAN.

VOL. IX.

BUSINESS CARDS.

Ben. J. Monroe,
Attorney and Counselor at Law, and General Land Agent.
LEAVENWORTH CITY, KANSAS.
WILL practice law in all the Courts of the Territory and Western Missouri, and remittances promptly made. Money invested and rents collected and remitted.
Office on St. Delaware street, between Second and Third.

John L. Phythian,
Having returned to Frankfort, offers his professional services to the people of the town and adjoining country.
Office on St. Clair street, next door to the Yeoman Office.

A. J. James,
Attorney and Counselor at Law,
FRANKFORT, KY.
Office on St. Clair street, near the Branch Bank of Kentucky.

JAMES P. METCALF,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
FRANKFORT, KY.

WILL practice in the Court of Appeals, Office on St. Clair street, over Drs. Sneed & Rodman.

G. W. CRADDOCK & CRADDOCK,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
Frankfort, Ky.

WILL practice law in all the Courts held in Frankfort, and will attend to the collection of debts for non-residents in any part of the State.

He will be Commissioner of Deeds, and other writing to be used or recorded in other States; and, as Commissioner under the act of Congress, attend to the taking of depositions, affidavits, etc.

Office, "Old Bank," opposite Mansion House, nov 13.

P. U. Major,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
FRANKFORT, KY.

Office on St. Clair street, near the Court House. Will practice in the circuit courts of the 5th Judicial District, Court of Appeals, Federal Court, and all other courts held in Frankfort.

S. D. Morris.
ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW
FRANKFORT, KY.

PRACTICES in all the courts held in Frankfort, and in the adjoining counties. He will attend particularly to the collection of debts in any part of the State. All business referred to him will meet with prompt attention.

Office on St. Clair street in the new building next door to the Bank of Kentucky, owned by G. W. Cradock's office.

JOHN M. HARLAN,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
Frankfort, Ky.

Office on St. Clair street, with James Harlan.

JOHN RODMAN,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
ST. CLAIR STREET,
Two doors North of the Court-house.
'53 fr Frankfort, Ky.

CAPITAL HOTEL,
R. C. STEELE, Proprietor,
Frankfort, Ky.

May 22, 1858. tf

H. WHITTINGHAM,
Newspaper and Periodical Agent,
FRANKFORT, KY.

CONTINUES to furnish American and Foreign Weeklies, Monthlies, and Quartaries, on the best terms. Advance Sheets received from twenty-four Publishers. Back numbers supplied to complete sets.

nov 27 w&t-wtf

E. A. W. ROBERTS,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
FRANKFORT, KY.

WILL practice in the Franklin Circuit Court, and in the courts of the adjoining counties. Office east side of St. Clair street, next door to Mr. Harlan's office.

may 19 tf

B. F. DINKLE,
BEGS to inform his friends, and citizens of Frankfort and surrounding counties generally, that he is prepared to execute all descriptions of House, Signs and Façade Painting, in the best style, and on moderate terms.

Jobs attended to in town and country, and satisfaction warranted in all cases. Orders left at the hardware store of Mr. John Haly, next door to the Farmers Bank, will receive the most prompt attention.

jan 11 w&t-wtf

JOHN M. McCALLA,
Attorney at Law, and General Agent,
WASHINGTON CITY, D. C.

WILL attend particularly to SUSPENDED and REJECTED CLAIMS—where based upon the want of official records.

sep 6 w&t-wtf

ALE and BEER!
LEXINGTON BREWERY!!

THE undersigned, returning his thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon him heretofore, begs leave to inform his customers and the public in general, that he has established a new establishment, and furnished the same with all the apparatus imprements in machinery, apparatus, &c., he is now prepared to furnish a superior article of Ale, Beer, Lager Beer, &c.

Distillers can be furnished at all times with prime Barley, Malt, and Hops.

We also furnish the best lager beer in the market.

Messrs PEIFER & KAHR have accepted the sole agency for the sale of his Ale and Beer for Frankfort and vicinity, and will always have on hand, and for sale a full stock of the same at manufacturer's price, freight advanced.

All orders intrusted to the same will be filled with promptness and dispatch.

nov 18 w&t-wtf

C. W. SULLIVAN,
TAILOR.

SHOP on St. Clair street, 2 doors south of James Harlan's law office.

17th Making, repairing, and renovating done to order.

jan 3 w&t-wtf

EBERT & WRIGHT,

HOUSE, SIGN, AND ORNAMENTAL PAINTERS

In all the late and fashionable styles. Graining, Varnishing and Polishing; Gilding, Zinc, Oriental and Grecian Painting; Glazing and Paper Hanging. All work done in the best manner and on the most reasonable terms. All orders promptly attended to. Shop on Main street, Frankfort, Ky.

mar 24 w&t-wtf

EDGAR KEENON

JNO. N. CRUTCHER,

DEALERS IN

Books & Stationery,

HATS, CAPS, BOOTS, SHOES,

STRAW GOODS,

Umbrellas, Notions, &c., &c.

jan 11 w&t-wtf

Main street, Frankfort, Ky.

LOUISVILLE ADVERTISEMENTS.

NEW MUSIC HOUSE!

WM. MCARRELL,
MUSIC PUBLISHER AND DEALER IN

PIANOS, MELODEONS BOUND AND SHEET MUSIC,

Musical Instruments and Musical Merchandise
Generally.

No. 474 JEFFERSON STREET,
NORTH SIDE, BETWEEN THIRD AND FOURTH,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

HAVING JUST OPENED A BIG
MUSIC HOUSE, we call the attention of friends and the public generally to my stock, which is ENTIRELY NEW, and has been selected with great care. It shall be my aim to keep constantly on hand.

The very Best and Latest Publications

And a fine assortment of
SUPERIOR PIANOS, MELODEONS, GUI-
TARS, VIOLINS, STRINGS, &c., &c.

Printed Catalogues forwarded on application,
post, on receipt of the market price.

Those in want of new and good Music or Instruments will do well to give me a call, as I am determined to sell on the spot.

W. MCARRELL,
474 Jefferson street.

N. B. The friends and acquaintances of Mr. JOS. H.
McCANN will always find him at 474 Jefferson street, where he will be happy to fill their orders.

sep 24 w&t-wtf

M. B. SWAIN,
MERCHANT TAILOR,
AND DEALER IN GENTLEMEN'S
FURNISHING GOODS,

No. 4 Masonic Building,
Louisville, Ky.

NATHANIEL WOLFE, S. N. HODGES,
LATE OF FRANKFORT.

WOLFE & HODGES,
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS
AT LAW,

AND COLLECTING AGENTS,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

Office on Centre Street, opposite the Court-House.
oct 8 w&t-wtf

Wooden Ware Store.

THE subscriber has established at Louisville a WHOLESALE STORE, for the sale of all the varieties of

WOODEN WARE,

that now enter so largely into daily consumption

His stock of Buckets, Tubs, Churns, Brooms, Hand

Whisks, Covered Cedar Cans, Wash-Baskets, Clothes-

Plans, Measures, Sieves, Mops, Cartons, Matches, Blacking, Barrels-Covers, Coverings, Floor-Jackets, Black Cedar, Boxwood, Coal-Twine, &c., &c.

CONSTANTLY on hand Curtain Goods, Window

Shades, and Trimmings, Spring Hair, Cotton

Moss, and Sheet Mattresses, Feather Pillows, and

ALL kinds of Upholstery done at short notice

and upon reasonable terms.

mar 24 w&t-wtf

Henry Wehmhoff,
UPHOLSTERER!

No. 547 South Side Main St., bet. 2d and 3d, Louisville, Ky.

CONSTANTLY on hand Curtain Goods, Window

Shades, and Trimmings, Spring Hair, Cotton

Moss, and Sheet Mattresses, Feather Pillows, and

ALL kinds of Upholstery done at short notice

and upon reasonable terms.

mar 24 w&t-wtf

W. H. Russel,
DELAWARE STATE
LOTTERIES!

CAPITAL PRIZE
$100,000.

The following

MAGNIFICENT SCHEMES

will be drawn by WOOD, EDDY & CO., Managers, at Wilmington, Delaware, in public, under the superintendence of sworn commissioners appointed by the Governor.

DELAWARE LOTTERY!
CLASS NO. 618,

Draws on Saturday, November 26th, 1859.

78 Numbers—13 Drawn Ballots.

1 GRAND CAPITAL PRIZE OF $100,000!

1 Prize of..... $50,000 100 Prizes of..... $1,000

2 " 20,000 170 " 500 "

2 " 10,000 65 " 100 "

2 " 6,000 65 " 60 "

2 " 4,000 65 " 50 "

2 " 3,000 4,810 " 40 "

2 " 2,000 27,040 " 20 "

32,396 Prizes amounting to..... $1,186,766

Nearly one prize to every two tickets!

78 Numbers—13 Drawn Ballots.

1 GRAND CAPITAL PRIZE OF $40,000.

1 Prize of..... $15,000 100 Prizes of..... $25

1 " 10,000 65 " 100 "

1 " 5,000 65 " 80 "

1 " 4,000 120 " 70 "

1 " 2,644 120 " 30 "

1 " 2,000 4,745 " 20 "

1 " 1,500 27,040 " 10 "

500 " 500 "

32,396 Prizes..... amounting to $580,589

Whole Tickets $10; Halves $5; Quarters $2.

sep 24 w&t-wtf

C. T. Merriman's Cloak & Shawl House

MORE NEW GOODS!

R RECEIVED by Saturday's Express, a large stock of new patterns in BLACK CLOTH

CLOAKS, which will be on exhibition to-day;

I am determined to sell my goods at a small profit, and at precisely the same prices they can be purchased at retail in New York, Boston, or Philadelphia.

C. T. MERRIMAN,
National Hotel Building,
FOURTH STREET, LOUISVILLE, KY.

sep 22 w&t-wtf

H. Whittingham,
Newspaper and Periodical Agent,
FRANKFORT, KY.

CONTINUES to furnish American and Foreign

Weeklies, Monthlies, and Quartaries, on the best

THE TRI-WEEKLY YEOMAN.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
S. I. M. MAJOR & CO.,
ST. CLAIR ST., OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE

TERMS.
One copy, per annum, in advance..... $4 00

THURSDAY..... NOVEMBER 17, 1859.

Superintendent of Public Instruction

It is said of the Aztecs, previous to the conquest of Mexico by the Spaniards, that before they made a sacrifice of their prisoners, they were in the habit of arraying them in beautiful garments, ornamented with feather-work of the richest plumage of the birds of the tropics. No attention seemed too good for them, and all vied in paying them honors. Something like this seems the preface to an article in an Opposition cotemporary respecting our worthy Superintendent of Public Instruction, who is represented in a most amiable light, decorated with talents and attainments, and to a person not acquainted with him, there would appear an exaggeration of compliment; but the issue is much like the result to the Mexican prisoners; he has the cold steel thrust at him with all the vehemence at the command of the puny arm that wields it; but Mr. Richardson can receive no injury from such Liliputian efforts, and must smile at all such pigmy productions, but could hardly become irritated at them.

Mr. Richardson feels in an eminent degree what is felt by every man of cultivation in the State—sincere desire to see all educational interests promoted by every legitimate means. He has exerted himself as much as any member of the Legislature ever did to inaugurate a system of common schools, that should carry the blessings of education into the remotest hamlet in the State, and we believe his efforts are appreciated by those whose appreciation is worth anything. He can have no better proof of the estimation in which his labors are regarded by the great body of the people, than his triumphant election to a post supervisory of the very subject to which his legislative exertions had been directed.

It is true that Mr. Richardson was mainly instrumental in the establishment of the Normal School; that he introduced the bill making the appropriation, and urged its passage with eloquence and effect. That he felt a paternal solicitude in its success we do not hesitate to aver, and when he observed it likely to come under an influence detrimental to the objects of its establishment, he no doubt regretted the obligations that rendered it imperative that he should acquiesce in its abolition. A member of the Legislature is not such in a private, but in a representative capacity; and that such representative should obey the will of his constituents is a cardinal principle in all republican and democratic governments: as a minister is sent to a foreign country to represent the interests and wishes of the one sending him; regarding the instructions he may receive as orders he is bound by every principle of honor to obey, and in the absence of such instructions is he permitted to defer to his own judgment, and then he should act with the best lights that God has given him. Any other view of the representative obligation is rank Federalism—not democratic, not republican—and is a heresy long since banished by the popular verdict from American politics, and could only be revived by some neophyte with a capacity as slender as his experience.

If Mr. Richardson has been compelled to devour his own offspring, as his accusers would have us believe, it was from a stern sense of duty, and in obedience to an elementary principle of his political faith, that no Democrat, though as ignorant as his assailant, is unacquainted with; nor could he disregard it without becoming as faithless to his profession as those who change their name from Whig to Know-Nothing, and then to Opposition, in hopes of securing popular favor.

The office to which Mr. Richardson has been elected is second to none in the Commonwealth in responsibility and in opportunities for usefulness—so important, indeed, is it, that the very first intellect in the nation thought it not unworthy to engage his powers, and we know that Mr. Richardson, who has every qualification to discharge the duties with profit to the public and credit to himself, if he had no more capacity than his crude assailant, could not widely err from a pathway so ably designated by his distinguished predecessor.

A RARE CHANCE.—Mr. R. Gillispie advertises the house in which he resides for sale upon liberal terms. The house is one of the most desirable family dwellings in Frankfort. It contains 16 rooms, with dry cellars, and is in perfect repair. The lot is a large one, running back from Main street towards the river 400 feet. There is a good stone stable upon the premises, with an alley running from it to the street. So good an opportunity of buying a first-rate dwelling in Frankfort on easy terms does not often present itself.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Mansion House. This well-known hotel will be reopened to the traveling public on the 25th inst., under the management of Mr. G. L. Postlethwaite. It has lately been refitted, and from the reputation of its new proprietor, will be well kept. The indications are that it will be crowded with guests during the coming winter.

DR. AYER, THE CELEBRATED LUNG AND THROAT PHYSICIAN, who is at the head of the well known "Lung and Throat Institute," Cincinnati, O., will pass through Frankfort, arriving at 7 o'clock Thursday evening, (to-night). He may be consulted professionally at the Capitol Hotel till 10 o'clock, A.M., Friday. So favorable opportunity may not occur again of seeing a Physician so invariably successful in the speedy cure of Asthma, Catarrah, and all forms of lung and throat diseases.

Money Matters.

There is no denying the fact that "money is power," and Mr. Clay never uttered a truer sentiment in the forty years he was in public life. The capitalists of the world possess the controlling power of the world, and they can render the sword as harmless as the distaff; and the center of capital is to the body politic what the heart is to the human body. There is not an intelligent banker in the country who does not watch with interest the fluctuations of exchange; and when the tide sets out of New York, you see bank presidents shake their heads and bank directors look profound, and you may expect "nothing discounted" till a turn takes place. This vulgar thing called money has an interest for all, and all the preaching for two thousand years against the love of it has not made men love it less; and the knowledge of this fact warrants us in giving our readers a weekly summary of any items of interest on a subject which lies so near their hearts; it is a scientific fact that the "pocket" is the most sensitive to the touch of all the organs of the human structure.

Money is becoming moderately easy, although business is still dull. The change in the weather will induce the slaughtering of hogs, and we may expect our usual winter activity in trade. In Louisville, packers are not offering more than $3 50 gross; but sellers demand $4, at which latter price there are plenty to be had. We believe that Mr. Macklin's agents are still paying $4, as we have heard of no alteration in their prices. The droves we have observed passing are finely fattened, and will compare favorably with those of any season.

Wheat and flour have both advanced since our last, and are very firm. The foreign advances are favorable to a good export demand. If the surplus grain in the country was exported at present prices, in addition to the cotton that is now going forward, it would soon put a stop to the export of coin.

If there is no unusual political excitement in Europe, we may look for the next to be a year of unexampled prosperity; but the contingencies of this kind have become so hazardous that we may expect a general war at any hour. This, to us, however, would be an advantage in many respects; it would create a demand for shipping, breadstuffs, and provisions; but it would depress cotton and carry off coin.

The banks of Kentucky are noble institutions, and we doubt if there are to be found in any country a set of corporations who evince more interest for the welfare of the community and their customers. Corporations are generally regarded as soulless; but they are only soulless in the hands of soulless men; for the widest benevolence the world has seen is now being exerted by corporate institutions; but they are in the hands of men eminent for personal benevolence, and who impress their character upon the institutions they control.

Clerical friend of ours, who is not more remarkable for theunction and power with which he dispenses the word of truth than for a disposition for the enjoyment of a silly joke—and who is of the Baptist persuasion, which is necessary to be known to understand what we are going to tell. He had at one time no little difficulty in making both ends meet, owing to the negligence of his members paying their dues, and it was a source of considerable annoyance to the good man. At the close of a protracted meeting, during which he had shown unusual powers of endurance and persuasion, and had gathered many into the fold, there was held the usual monthly church meeting, at which some member proposed that the salary of their worthy pastor should be increased from $1,000 to $1,500, and this was instantly seconded; but our friend, who was moderator of the meeting, arose with all due gravity and said: "Brethren, before I put the question, I wish to say a word in explanation. It requires no little study and time to prepare the sermons I preach to you, and it takes so much time to collect the salary you already give me, that I fear if you raise it, I will not have any time left to prepare to preach at all"—and down he sat. Since then he has been punctually paid.

Col. ROBERT S. FORDE, of Hardin county, for some time editor of the Elizabethtown Democrat, is announced as a candidate for Assistant Clerk of the House of Representatives. There is not a more competent or deserving Democrat in the State. He has done good service for his party with tongue and pen, and merits a recognition at their hands.

A Golden Eagle was killed on the Lower St. Lawrence, and brought to Quebec, which was shot while endeavoring to carry off a child about three years of age. This is the only bird in America that will attack the human species. They breed in the North, following at this season the birds and animals that seek a milder climate.

Count Fueschi, a Venetian silk-grower, finds that the silk-worms in India are affected with the same disease as in Italy, and fears that the worm is going out of existence. What a sad prospect for the votaries of fashion. When the silk-worms all die the ladies will be obliged to shut themselves up, for nothing but silk answers for the street in these days.

Wesley C. Simmons, arrested at Richmond, Va., charged with uttering seditious sentiments, is native of Anne Arundel county, Maryland, but has lived ten years in Belmont county, Ohio. If convicted he can be imprisoned one year, and fined five hundred dollars.

Ex-President Pierce has purchased a tract of fifteen acres of land, in Concord, N. H., on which he intends to build a house next spring.

Col. Jas. K. Huey, of Livingston county, left this city last Thursday morning, on the Thos. Scott. He is going to Texas, where he intends to reside.—Paducah Herald.

Democratic Meeting in Christian.

At a meeting of the Democracy of Christian county, held at the court-house in Hopkinsville, on Monday, the 7th inst., Dr. J. C. Whitlock was called to the Chair, and Will D. Gentry appointed Secretary. After the object of the meeting was stated, on motion, a committee, consisting of one from each magistrate's district, was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the party in the county. While the committee were absent the meeting was addressed by Messrs. Leavell, Sypert, Champlin, Greenfield, and Feland, all of whom nobly acquitted themselves by well timed speeches characteristic of the true principles of Democracy. The committee returned the following resolutions, which were taken up separately and unanimously passed:

Resolved, That we have entire confidence in the wisdom and patriotism of the Administration of James Buchanan.

Resolved, That we approve of, and adhere to the principles of the Democratic party as set forth in the Cincinnati platform of June, 1856, and carried out by the Administration of Mr. Buchanan.

Resolved, That we congrateulate the Democracy and the country upon the recent triumph of our principles in Kentucky, and regard the same as decisive against the issues and isms of the opposition.

Resolved, That we approve of the principles adduced by Gov. Magoffin in his Inaugural address, and are rejoiced that Kentucky now has an Executive Chief who knows his duty and will perform it in all emergencies.

Resolved, That, in our judgment, the practical out-working of the doctrines of the Opposition or Black Republican faction at the North, and we earnestly hope that it will be a warning and serve as an awakening to the people of Kentucky to the dangers of an affiliation for any purpose with Northern Oppositonists.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Democracy of Christian are due, and are hereby tendered to our member elect, Wm. Brown, and our State Senator, Robert Glenn, and our distinguished Congressman, Sam'l O. Peyton, for their efficient services during the last session.

Resolved, That having the utmost confidence in the judgment and sound discretion of our delegates to the State Convention on the 9th of January next, and believing that in all matters coming before that body they will act as the interest of the country demands, we leave them entirely untrammeled by instructions.

Resolved, That the following gentlemen, and many other Democrats of our county who may choose to attend, are hereby appointed delegates to the Frankfort Convention on the 9th of January next: Peter Rodgers, A. J. Farmer, W. W. McKenzie, L. T. Brasher, A. J. Kenner, Rice Dulin, Josiah Clark, D. M. Woodruff, Louis Hardy, Joseph Cordy, Peter T. Owen, Newton Payne, L. L. Leavelle, W. D. Gentry, Dr. Whitlock, Jno. T. Thomas, L. A. Sypert, John D. Morris, W. S. Moore, F. P. Stewart, James M. Ford, S. B. Greenfield, J. M. Wilson, J. W. A. McGarvey.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Democracy are due Will D. Gentry and Sam'l. B. Greenfield of the People's Press, for the efficient way in which they disseminated the principles of the party in the late canvas, and that it is the duty of the Democracy of Christian county to support their local paper.

*On motion, the meeting adjourned,
J. C. WHITLOCK, Chairman.
WILL D. GENTRY, Secretary.*

Latter from Hayti.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Advices from Hayti October 22d, state that twenty individuals concerned in the recent conspiracy and murder of the President's daughter had been tried, convicted, and sentenced to death. Sixteen of them had already been hung; one was reprieved, and three had previously escaped to France. Gen. Ocean Ulysses, for having suppressed the facts connected with the insurrection, of which he was previously aware, was sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

Port Arthur had been relieved from martial law, and the country was quiet.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Judge Douglas' condition has improved within the last 24 hours, and his physicians consider him better this morning.

The postmaster at Brownsville, writing to the Post-office Department, mentions that all the mail routes in that quarter had been made impassable by forces acting under Cortinas, and the mail carriers had been made prisoners. He says this is emphatically a war of races and of extermination.

The Board of Aldermen have refused their assent to set apart next Thursday as a day of thanksgiving.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—The New Orleans Picayune, of the 12th, says Gen. Plifrey's brigade is willing to go to Brownsville if the demands of the rebels are not met.

The postmaster at Brownsville, writing to the Post-office Department, mentions that all the mail routes in that quarter had been made impassable by forces acting under Cortinas, and the mail carriers had been made prisoners. He says this is emphatically a war of races and of extermination.

The Picayune urges the city to furnish money for an expedition against the guerrillas.

Judge Douglas' Illness.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Judge Douglas' early recovery of his health was on Saturday anticipated by some of his most intimate friends. It is, however, reliably ascertained that he has been extremely ill for the last three days. His physician remained with him during last night, and this morning regard his condition about the same as it was yesterday, though perhaps he is a little more comfortable.

Gent. Walker's Movements.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 14.—The New Orleans True Delta, of Friday, says Gen. Walker had arrived in that city and proposes to take command of a party to relieve Brownsville. It is also stated that active movements are being made in portions of Texas to aid the inhabitants of that town against attacks of the outlaws.

Editor MARRIED.

Editor MARRIED.—Our good friend, J. Tom Ingram, of the Canion Yeoman, was married on Monday, the 31st ult., to Miss Julia A. New. We wish him all the happiness that anybody ever realized by having a "sweet little wife." We shall expect the Yeoman to be more interesting than ever, under the new arrangement.

Hopkinsville Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Albany Journal's figures give to Leavenworth, Republic, for Secretary of State, a majority of 1,200. The Argus reduces this majority considerably.

A meeting of the Hard Shell central committee was called for to-day, but only one member was present. He adjourned without taking any action on the election of the Charleston delegates.

Dreadful Accident.

FUFFALO, Nov. 15.—A portion of the ruins of the grain elevator of the N. Y. Central railroad, which was burned last week, fell this evening, burying ten or twelve laborers who were engaged in clearing the ground. Two of these unfortunate men were killed and four injured.

Gov. Corwin and the Speakership.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15.—There was an error in to-day's dispatch in relation to Gov. Corwin and the Speakership of the House of Representatives. It should have read as follows: The friends of Mr. Corwin desire it to be understood that he is a candidate for the Speakership.

New York Election.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The Albany Atlas and Argus figure up the majority for Leavenworth, Secretary of State, at 803.

METCALFE'S REPORTS.

THE first volume of Metcalfe's Reports of decisions of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky is bound and ready for delivery, and may be had of the Reporter or at either of the book stores in Frankfort. Price $5 per volume. Persons wishing a volume sent by mail may remit the price and it will be forwarded postage paid.

YOUNG GENTLEMEN.

WANTING SOMETHING EXTRA IN THE HANDSOME Cloth Cap or Dress Hat, will do well to call and see those at SAM. C. BULL'S, Hat and Bookstore, St. Clair Street.

MILLINERY.

TO WHICH are added various articles of Millinery Goods, to which their special attention is invited. Prices as low as the lowest. Bonnets Bleached, Dyed, and Trimmed on short notice.

MRS. STROBRIDGE,

THANKFUL for past favors, would inform her friends and the public, that she has just returned from Boston and New York with a large, selected choice stock of Millinery Goods.

Ready-made Clothing,

Fashionable Goods, Hats Caps, Trunks, Carpet Bags, etc., etc., ever brought to this city, which he will sell as low as can be bought anywhere, at the FRANKLIN CLOTHING STORE, northeast corner of Main and St. Clair streets, Frankfort, Ky.

THE KENTUCKY YEOMAN

FOR THE Session of the Legislature

Daily, - - - - $1 50, in advance.

Weekly, - - - - 75 cts, in advance.

TERMS:

Daily, during session $1 50

Weekly, during session 75

Ten copies Daily 12 00

Ten copies Weekly 5 00

Remittances may be made by mail at our risk.

Address S. I. M. MAJOR & CO.,

FRANKFORT, KY.

TERMS:

Daily, during session $1 50

Weekly, during session 75

Ten copies Daily 12 00

Ten copies Weekly 5 00

Remittances may be made by mail at our risk.

Address S. I. M. MAJOR & CO.,

THE TRI-WEEKLY YEOMAN.

A Sporting Lyric:

How fast shot "rade" birds,
Two guns and a terrier lame—
They'd better stand out of the mud there,
And set them up to game.
But here's to you, my country!
Of that red-headed Paddy's eye,
He's been "radin'" too much for you, sir,
Any such game to try.

"Whist, James, my boy! kape dark there,
And hold the big hull dog in;
There's a bloody big cloud of rade birds.
Just come for a pepperin'—
Chin, bang! speal the little b'rrel;
Puff, puff!—you hear the old "Queen Ann"—
There's a Paddy stretched out in a mud hole,
A kicked down, knocked over man.

The big hull dog's eyes stick out;
And the terrier's backs begin;
The Paddy digs out of the mud hole,
Then the "discoursin'" comes in;
"Och, James, you precious young blaeuguard,
I know you're the wif's son—
Him man a finger's load, thin—
Did you put in the d—d gulf gun?"

How many fingers? Be jabels!
Dive I never put in a one;
Dive think I'd be after ramming
My fingers into the gun?"

"Well, give me the powdher, Jamey!"

"The powdher? As I am born,

I put it all into your mouth—
As I had never a powdher horn."

[From the Memphis Avalanche, 8th inst.]

Preliminary Examination of a Follower of Brown---W. R. Palmer held to Bail---Alarming Disclosures.

Yesterday morning, Dr. William Russell Palmer, as he calls himself, and whose arrest on suspicion of being a co-conspirator with Ossawatomie Brown, we gave particulars in our last, was taken before a Magistrate's Court, composed of Justices Josiah Horne, of this city, and J. W. A. Pettitt, of Germantown. His examination occupied the attention of the Court from ten o'clock in the morning until three in the evening, and was listened to by an eager crowd of spectators, deeply interested in obtaining a full knowledge of the facts of the case, and they are substantially as narrated by us in our paper of yesterday.

It seems that a traveler on a railroad between Philadelphia and New York observed a fellow-passenger who occupied the seat in front of him stand up and walk out of the cars. In the act, the young man dropped two letters and a memorandum, which seeing, the traveler picked up, but was unable to restore to the loser. Glancing at the address, he observed that one of them was addressed to "Captain J. Brown, Harper's Ferry, Va." This was on the 22d of October, only a few days after the insurrection at Harper's Ferry, and a time when the bold attempt of Brown and his fanatical followers occupied the attention of all. The traveler, naturally enough, on seeing the address, concluded that the documents he had accidentally become possessor of related in some manner to the affair at Harper's Ferry, and, on arriving at New York, dispatched the letters and memorandum to Governor Wise. The following is the letter received by the Governor with the letters referred to. It has a heading at the beginning of the first page, "Manhattan Hotel, Murray H: second door from Broadway, New York." Below this on the left hand is "sketch of the hotel," then follows on the right the advertisement of Huggins & Fling, proprietors. Then the letter begins:

"A TRAVELER'S LETTER,

New York, October 22, 1859.

DEAR SIR: While in the cars to-day on a passage from Philadelphia to New York, a young man who occupied the seat first in front of me got up to go out at one of the way-stations. He had an overcoat on his arm. I thought I saw something fall from his side-pocket of his overcoat as he started. On looking over into the seat I discovered he had dropped two letters and a memorandum. I took them up, but too late to give them to him, as the cars had started again. I discovered a sealed letter to Captain John Brown, Harper's Ferry, and having my curiosity excited on account of the coincidence of the address with that of Brown's the insurrectionist, I was led to read the other letter addressed to William Horner, which had been opened when I found it; I was satisfied, from reading this letter, that the sealed letter was for Brown, the Harper's Ferry insurrectionist you now have under arrest. As I suspect the contents of that letter to be of an incendiary character, I have concluded to send them to you for disposal; I therefore send them just as I found them inclosed in the same envelop with this note. If there be incendiarism in the letter to Brown, it may be of service to you, and if not, Captain Brown can not be injured by receiving it at your hands. Yours, respectfully,

A TRAVELER.

To Hon. Gov. H. A. Wise.

Upon receiving the above letter, and examining the contents of the others, Governor Wise deemed them of sufficient importance to send to Governor Harris, which was done in the following letter:

LETTER FROM THE AID-DE-CAMP OF GOVERNOR WISE.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, /

RICHMOND, October 25, 1859. /

To His Excellency the Governor of Tennessee:

Sir: I am instructed by the Governor of this Commonwealth to inclose to you copies of letters and papers received by him from an anonymous writer, who signs himself "A Traveler." Although they reached him from an irresponsible source, he feels it to be his duty to inform you of their contents, that you may judge for yourself of their importance in the present excited state of the public mind.

Very respectfully,

W. M. M'NFORDD,

Aid-de-Camp and Military Secretary.

The following is the Thatcher letter, which purports to have been written from Memphis to old John Brown, on the 3d of October last, and which was picked up, sealed, in the cars between New York and Philadelphia on the 21st, just two days after the insurrection was known in Memphis, and forwarded to Governor Wise in the same condition in which it was found. It was inclosed in a large document-like envelop, addressed to "Captain John Brown, Harper's Ferry, Va," and in one corner was "Politeness of Mr. Horner—to be delivered in person."

THATCHER'S LETTER.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 3, 1859.

To Captain A. Brown, General Commander-in-Chief of Provisional Government U.S.A.:

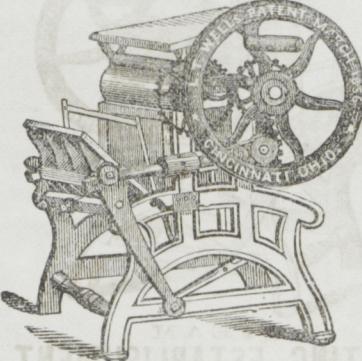

Dear Captain: I have just completed my tour through the Southern States, and am now on my way to Kentucky. In my last letter to you I mentioned that I should give the States of Tennessee and Arkansas a thorough scouring. I did so, and am satisfied that of all the States of the South, Tennessee and Arkansas are the best fitted to make the first strike in. Those two States have but few whites in favor of slavery, while they contain an immense number of slaves already ripe and ready at the first intimation to strike a decided blow for their freedom; while the large mass of the whites are against slavery, and will be ready to assist them at a moment's warning. Several of them stated to me that they had gone so far as to prepare arms for their slaves and instruct them in their use, and how to act when the worst comes to the worst. While at Brownsville, Tennessee, I addressed a letter to the school-teacher, Mr. H——, and he came to Brownsville to see me.

There is no avocation in which a man can do so much good for our cause as that of school-teaching, because all the country around have so much confidence in a school-teacher who conducts himself right. He says that the large majority of colored people in his part of the State are ready to take up arms at a moment's warning, and a large number of whites are ready to join them. He says we must send out more well qualified men to the South as school teachers, and work them in everywhere. He gave me a letter of introduction to your friend Mr. Palmer, who is an extensive farmer near Shelby Depot, on the Brownsville road. I did not get out at that depot, but on inquiry of a passenger in the cars, I learned that Mr. Palmer did not then live on his plantation, on account of a difficulty between himself and wife and an injunction on his property, and a wife pending a divorce, and that he would be hard to find—so I concluded to go to him.

When I arrived at Memphis, I accidentally met with Mr. Palmer at the hotel where I stopped. I handed him Mr. H——'s letter. After reading it, he cordially shook my hand, and invited me to take a walk with him. We went up to a place on the bank of the river called the Old Navy-yard, and took a seat on some bags in a secluded place, where he said we could talk freely. He said he had sincerely sympathized with you, Captain, in all your troubles, as he had been a master of slaveholders himself. He said he had been working silently, but steadily, for our cause for two years, and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scoundrels about him, suddenly ejected him from the place, and without a moment's warning. That he was still suing her for his rights by marriage; and that he had married a widow who had a number of slaves, for the purpose of establishing himself in the good opinion and confidence of the slaveholders about him. That he had at first intended, at the first good opportunity, to transfer all the slaves he had gotten in his possession by marrying to our friends, by way of Cincinnati; and that he had a great many more, belonging to his neighbors, that were ready to go with them; but a difficulty had occurred between himself and wife, and that she had, with the secret advice of several slaveholders and scound

JOB WORK!

PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT YEOMAN OFFICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

We call the attention of heads of Colleges, officers of various Societies, county officers, Magistrates, and all others desiring good work on the best terms, to our superior facilities for printing

CATALOGUES, CIRCULARS, PREMIUM LISTS,

BLANKS OF ALL KINDS.

Books, Pamphlets, Cards, Bill-Heads, Posters, Letter-Heads, &c., &c., &c.

We have the greatest variety of wood and metal types of the latest styles, entirely new;

STEAM POWER & CARD PRESSES, fine paper and ink, of all kinds and colors, and employing the most experienced workers, we are enabled to turn out kinds of work in a style equal to any other in the West, and at prices as low as the same can be done in Louisville or Cincinnati.

If Lawyers visiting Frankfort to attend any of the Courts, send their briefs or business cards printed at the shortest notice.

Particular attention given to printing in inks of different colors. All orders will receive prompt attention. Address

S. I. M. MAJOR & CO.,
Frankfort, Ky.

mark6 ttf

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.'S

PRINT OF THE

British Reviews,

AND

Blackwood's Magazine

L. SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continue to publish the following leading British periodicals, viz:

1. The London Quarterly (Conservative)
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig)
3. The North British Review (Free Church)
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal)
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

THESE Periodicals always represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Free Church, and publish from time to time one feature of their character, the origin of the party, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they have stood, unrivaled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to every class of society, and forming an intelligent reader of even class the furnished a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.

The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers give additional value to these Periodicals, as much as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.

TERMS.

For any one of the four Reviews..... $3 00
For any two of the four Reviews..... 2 00
For any three of the four Reviews..... 3 00
For all four of the Reviews..... 4 00
For Blackwood's Magazine..... 3 00
For Blackwood and one Review..... 5 00
For Blackwood and two Reviews..... 6 00
For Blackwood and three Reviews..... 7 00
For Blackwood and the four Reviews..... 10 00
Money current in the State where issued will be received at par.

CLUBBING.

A discount of twenty-five per cent, from the above price will be allowed to CLUBS ordering four or more copies of any one or more of the above works. Thus: Four copies of Blackwood, or one of our Review, will be sent to any Club, for four dollars, for copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30; and so on.

Postage.—In the principal Cities and Towns, these works will be delivered, FREE OF POSTAGE. When sent by mail, the postage on any part of the United States will be for Twenty-four cents a year for each volume, and Fourteen cents a year for each of the Reviews.

N. B.—The price in Great Britain of the five Periodicals above named is $3 per annum.

OUR REPRINTS versus ELECTRICS, &c.

As we have for many years been paying more than $3,000 annually to the British Publishers for the matter furnished in these Periodicals, thus virtually covering every item in the profusion of the Reviews, we trust the public will be induced to patronize them, and give us the preference over Electrics and over patchwork publications, whether monthly, or weekly; which now extract wholly from our works and pay nothing either to the Editor or Author, and charge nothing to the Customer; to cheapness nobody can complain of paying $10 a year for the four leading British Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine, and by taking these works entire, and not in parts, we oblige our customers by this in the choice of the articles they may desire to read.

Moreover, taking into consideration the style in which our Reprints are published and their acknowledgment of the original editions, and also the advantages of an annual volume, our series will be found as cheap as any of the competing publications to which we have alluded.

If Remittances should always be addressed, post paid, to the Publishers,

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,
jan28 At-wt-wf No. 54, Gold street, New York.

Woodford Farm for Sale.

I WILL sell to the highest bidder, at the Court-House door, in the city of Frankfort, on the 19th day of December, next, a farm on Courtland, the farm on which the late William Parker deceased, resided, containing from one hundred and eighty to two hundred acres. Said farm lies on Glenn's Creek, about five miles above Frankfort. On said farm is a quantity of timber. Any person wishing to purchase said farm will do well to call and examine before the day of sale.

TERMS.—One half cash, the balance in two equal parts of one and two years, without interest, and paid quarterly, or at the end of the property will be required to secure the two last payments.

Time to take place at twelve o'clock.

JOHN PARKER.

NEW YORK MACHINERY DEPOT,
222 Pearl Street, New York.

MILBANK & ANNAN,
(successors to A. L. ACKERMAN),

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN IRON AND WOOD WORKING MACHINERY, AND

MANUFACTURERS' ARTICLES, &c.

sep30 w6m

STOVES & TIN WARE.
F. C. SMITH.

Shop on St. Clair Street, in Room formerly occupied by Morris & Hampton.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY.

HAVING just laid in a large stock of articles in my tinware business, I would call the attention of my friends and customers to my stock. I will continue to furnish to those who will buy.

Copper, Tin & Sheet Iron Work,

Spouting and Guttering

of all descriptions.

Continually on hand a large assortment of

COOKING, PARLOR & COAL STOVES.

All kinds of Roofing done to order.

F. C. SMITH.

INSURANCE.

LIFE INSURANCE,
FIRE INSURANCE,
AND

MARINE INSURANCE,

1 responsible Companies. Give me a call.

H. B. GRANT, Agent,

at Auditor's Office.

oct23 w&t-wf

Wall Paper and Cutlery.

NEW Styles of the above articles, just received at

S. C. BULL'S

A SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF
FANCY ARTICLES, CAN BE OBTAINED AT
DR. MILL'S DRUGSTORE.

POMADES FOR THE HAIR
Of every style and price at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

TOOTH BRUSHES,
A beautiful assortment, at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

COMBS,
Of every description and material, at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

HAIR BRUSHES.,
The largest variety in Frankfort, at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

ODONTOLOGIC PREPARATIONS.,
Consisting of Tooth Soaps, Tooth Paste, Tooth Powder, etc., at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

DOG GRASS BRUSHES.,
For Cloth, Velvet and Bonnet purposes, at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

FANCY SOAPS,
FINE COLOGNE,
Of every price, of all shapes, colors, sizes and perfumes
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

FINE TOILET BOTTLES,
Beautiful styles of Bohemian, at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

For sale in any quantity, either in bottles suitable for the toilet, or otherwise, at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store;

HANDKERCHIEF EXTRACTS.,
The genuine Lubin's as well as a variety of other's make, in new styles, and at all prices, at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

EVERYTHING,
In the line of Fancy and Toilet articles, that either Ladies or Gentlemen can desire, at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

FRANGIPANNI SACHETS,
To lay in drawers and perfume clothing, at
Dr. MILL'S Drug Store.

Merchant Tailor.,
JOHN W. VORHES has just received a large assortment of
Cloths, Cassimeres, and Vesting, selected by himself with great care, expressly for the accommodation of his customers, and is now prepared to make to order

Coats, Pants, and Vests, of the best material and in the most fashionable style warranted to fit.

Gentlemen are requested to call and examine his stock on Main street, nearly opposite the post-office, and affixed my official seal to my name.

John W. VORHES,
Com. for KY. PITTSBURG
Court of Albermarle,
State of Pennsylvania;

Be it remembered, that on the eleventh day of April 1856, before me, Ch. McClure Hays, a commissioner of the State of Pennsylvania, on behalf of the Governor of Kentucky, due authoriz'd and commission'd as such to take acknowledgements of deeds, etc., to be used or recorded thereon, personally came George W. CASS, who having sworn before me, to the best of his knowledge and belief, and as such he was and subscribed before me,

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal to my name.

W. H. KEENE & CO.,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN
CHOICE GROCERIES, LIQUORS, TO-BACCO, CIGARS,,
AND
ALL KINDS OF COUNTRY PRODUCE,
St. Clair and Wapping Streets,
FRANKFORT, KY.

All accounts due 1st of January, March and September, interest charged after maturity.

JANUARY 3, 1859

GROCERIES, &c.

OLD GOLD & SILVER, TRIMMING, BISCUIT, PINEAPPLE,
Golden Syrup, Sugar, Honey and Plantation
Molasses; German, Castle, and Rosin Soap; Tallow,
Star and Sperm Candles; Mackarel in assorted packages; Ham, plain and candied; Sides, clear and ripened; Sardines, Oyster Beer, and Tomato; Prime Country Lord & Sons, Meats, Salt, Sausages, Sisters, Shovels and Spades; best brands; Green and Black Tea; Tennent's Pale Ale; Tobacco and Cigars, every variety of brand; Old Brandies, Whisky and Wine; in fact, every article of Country Produce.

LIBERALS OF all kinds; Paints, Oils, Turpentine and Tar; Blasting and Rith Powder; Sauces Extracts, Pickles, and Table Oil.

ian4 w&t-wf

Special Notice.

I AM now in receipt of my Fall and Winter stock of Ladies and Misses' Shoes and Gaiters of every description, Gentleman's Boys', Sides, and Children's Boots and Shoes.

Gents' superior pump and water-proof Boots, Gents' Congress Gaiters, double and single sole. A few pairs of Men's Boots and Shoes, as well as the same article as before mentioned in my catalogues to give satisfaction, at

S. C. BULL'S
sep3 w&t-wf

(W. M. Todd's old stand.)

Now IN PRESS, AND READY FOR DELIVERY
IN A FEW DAYS.

A GREAT WORK FOR THE LADIES,

By the same Author, entitled

Ladies' Medical Guide,

AND MARRIAGE FRIEND.

This is a work of nearly 600 pages, beautifully bound in cloth, and contains over 100 Splendid and Curious Engravings. It gives a complete description of the structure and function of the reproductive organs, and have a healthy progeny, should read this book.
All Communions are strictly confidential.

Readers will please to sign their names plain and give their Post-office, County and State.

CIRCULARS

containing full explanations of our Schemes, &c., will be forwarded, by mail, to any one sending us his address.

list of the numbers that are drawn every day, the wheel, the amount of each number, and the date on which it was drawn, will be published after drawing on the American Republic, Macon, Ga., a specimen copy of which will be sent to every purchaser.

All orders for Tickets should be addressed to

HODGES, DAVIS & CO.,
macon, Georgia,

nov3 w&t-wf

R. MELVIN'S

IMPROVED

GIFT BOOK STORE,

BULLETIN BUILDING,

112 South Third Street, PHILADELPHIA.

THE Proprietor respectfully announces to the people of the United States, that he has just issued a new

CLASSIFIED CATALOGUE,

CONTAINING OVER 1300 VOLUMES,

Including every Respectable Department of Literature. And also, an extensive List of Valuable and Useful Gifts, to be presented to Purchasers of Books.

The first-class reputation which this Establishment enjoys, and the large number of subscribers and close attention to business and persons who die-sire to be fairly dealt with, and to receive prompt returns, are assured that the future will maintain the credit of the past and present.

For a complete description of the work see Prospectus, which will be sent on receipt of one letter stamped envelope.

AGENTS WANTED in every town in the Union.

Persons copying this advertisement twice, will receive a copy of the first work, by mail, on receipt of papers containing the said advertisement.

fech4 wtf